

3. Enable families to participate in the education of their children through a variety of roles. For example, parents/family members should be given opportunities to provide input into district policies and volunteer time within the classrooms and school programs.
4. Provide professional development opportunities for teachers and staff to enhance their understanding of effective parent/family involvement strategies.
5. Perform regular evaluations of parent/family involvement at each school and at the district level.
6. Provide access, upon request, to any instructional material used as part of the educational curriculum.
7. If practical, provide information in a language understandable to parents.

Teacher Qualifications

Our district is required to inform you of certain information that you, according to The No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-110), have the right to know. Upon your request, our district is required to provide to you in a timely manner, the following information:

- Whether the teacher has met state qualification and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.
- Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which state qualification or licensing criteria have been waived.
- Whether your child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.
- What baccalaureate degree major the teacher has and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certification.

In addition to the information that parents may request, districts must provide to each individual parent –

- Information on the achievement level of the parent's child in each of the state academic assessments as required under this part; and
- Timely notice that the parent's child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by, a teacher who is not highly qualified.

Special Notice

You as a parent, or legal guardian, have the right to inspect any educational records relating to your child. You also have the right to request that those records are on file in the school office. Records will be destroyed in compliance with state regulations. Parents of students attending a school receiving Title I funds may request information regarding the professional qualifications of the students classroom teacher.

The goal of the Pleasant View R-VI School District census program is to locate and report all handicapped and severely handicapped children, between the ages of birth through twenty (20) years of age. The School District will insure that personally identifiable information will be kept confidential, and will inform the public of the access rights of parents to personally identifiable data pertaining to their children. (Refer to Board of Education Policy JO-R.)

Resolution of Conflict

When people are together differences will always arise. We request that you first try to resolve your differences with the individual. If the problem still exists, the district chain of command must be utilized. The problem is addressed in the following order: staff, administrator, and then the Board of Education unless the problem is resolved. Remember we are all working together to give your child the best education possible.

Cheerleading Policy

All seventh (7th) and eighth (8th) students attending Pleasant View R-VI will be invited to become a cheerleader. Each will be responsible for his/her uniform that will consist of:

1. District cheerleading top and skirt
3. Black or blue briefs and tights (for girls)
4. White socks
5. White low top tennis shoes

Cheerleaders will cheer at all 7th and 8th grade games and all 5th and 6th grade games, with the inclusion of any interested 6th grade students. They will be courteous and cheerful at all times, considerate of all team members, coaches, and referees, be organized, and hospitable to all guests in our school. They will promote school spirit and represent our school proudly. The school's conduct rules shall be observed for all cheerleading activities.

The cheerleader will:

1. Be cheerful, poised, and show good sportsmanship at all times.
